

Inspiring, Connecting, Equipping & Supporting our members to make disciples for Christ.

2022 SUNSET CALENDAR

“Go”. A small word with large consequences. “Go” is the first word of the final command the Lord Jesus gave to His disciples. He had spent time with them demonstrating the future task. With His soon ascension into heaven, it remained their task to go and continue the ministry He had started.

Jesus defined what He meant by “Go”. He continued, “therefore make disciples . . .” We are directed to not haphazardly go and do anything or nothing. We are commanded to go and make disciples. Jesus demonstrated this with the twelve. He spent time with them, praying with them, serving people, teaching, and displaying grace and mercy.

The command to “Go” is not just to the professional ministers. It is not a command to the church in general. It is a command to each individual who claims to love Jesus. All too often we have seen this as a command to missionaries who travel to distant lands. It means each person is to go; to go into our neighborhoods, our places of employment, and into our communities to find people who will become disciples.

May 2022 be a year of great stewardship as we give our time, talents, and offerings to “Go” and make disciples.

Contagious Sharing

Dedicated to his country and to God

Tom Bouchard reached out to the Southern New England Conference Planned Giving and Trust Services office because he wanted to be sure that when the Lord called him home, his estate affairs would be in order. This meant that the final distribution of his earthly possessions would be carried out in an organized fashion to bless his relatives and church family.

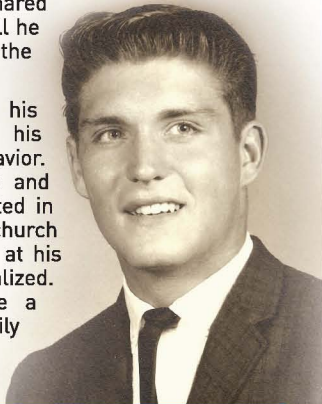

Tom was a veteran of the US Marine Corps having served in Vietnam. He was proud to have served his country, and had a whole-hearted thankfulness to God for sparing his life. For most of his adult life Tom battled addiction until he met the Lord.

By God's amazing grace Tom found the Lord in the early 2000's through a relative. This caused Tom to search the scriptures deeply and with child-like pleasure. In his study, Tom learned about liberating Biblical truths that changed his life. Tom was certain that the Lord was responsible for placing him in a veterans home next door to a SNEC Seventh-day Adventist church.

Tom adored his church family and supported the church with genuine love and generosity. He joyfully served as a deacon and volunteer literature evangelist. It was an inspiring experience to walk the streets with Tom as he shared his love and books with all he encountered. His love for the Lord was contagious!

Tom was enthusiastic in his praise for the Lord, his personal Friend and Savior. He loved helping others and was passionately interested in the wellbeing of his church family. When he arrived at his rest his wishes were realized. Tom was able to leave a substantial gift to his family and to the Lord's work.
